Safe Start: Anti-Ragging College Campaign

Ragging is a serious issue that can have severe consequences on mental health, well-being, and academic performance. The College is organizing a sexual harassment awareness program on 6/07/2022 (2022-23). This event aims to educate and raise awareness about the importance of consent, boundaries, and respectful behaviour. This program is to understand about college policies and procedures for reporting and addressing ragging incidents and also to promote a ragging-free culture and support students.

Report

Safe Start: Anti-Ragging College Campaign

The Government Science College, Idar organized Safe Start: Anti-Ragging College Campaign program on 6/07/2022 to educate students about the harmful effects of ragging, promote a culture of respect, and ensure a safe and welcoming environment for all students. The goal was to stand-in a safer and more inclusive campus environment. Dr. Mahesh Bhatt, the Chairman of anti-Ragging committee highlighted the importance of maintaining a ragging-free campus and introduced the program agenda. He also delivered talk covering the subject of physical and mental consequences of ragging on victims. A panel consisting of college faculty members, and student representatives discussed college policies, reporting procedures, and support services available for victims of ragging. Participants engaged in group discussions to understand the impact of ragging. The anti-Ragging program was a resounding success, fostering a culture of respect, empathy, and accountability within the college community. The program will be continued annually to reinforce the importance of preventing Ragging and promoting a safe campus environment. In this program, total 39 students gave presence.
